

Xtant, Folia Tec, Quantum Tek, Tokico, Alba, MTX, Grant Products,

Media Coverage:

Noel Rollon's Mazda RX-7 is featured on the cover of Import Tuner magazine.

Ty's Mazda Protge5 is featured on MazdaUSA.com

Bike Division

The International All-Stars are going full swing into the motorcycle world. Led by Steve 'Bus' Long, the bike team will be a major focus going into 2004 for the All-Stars. The bike division is scheduled to appear at events almost every weekend, including EBC/PepBoys promotions and also coordinating events of their own.

News

The All-Stars would like to welcome their newest sponsor, Greased Lightning (www.greased-lightning.com). Greased Lightning produces awesome cleaning products and degreasers, and the team looks forward to working with them in 2004. The yellow mascot man looks great with us!

The All-Stars will be working with SEMA to help promote for the International Auto Salon, or IAS for short. Bill Montgomery is working to promote their LA show April 2-4. Out on the east coast John Marsh and Eddie Habeck are working on the Atlantic City, NJ show going down May 21-23. Make sure you check these events out for a strong All-Star presence.

Models

Ann and Lady G are still working hard promoting for EBC brakes at PepBoys events. Amanda is featured on QT Alloys website.

Shows:

International Auto Salon
Los Angeles
April 2-4

West Coast

The bike team is reppin' strong at dozens of events on the west coast.

In the middle

David Nam's IS300 was on display at Import Tuners booth at Autorama in Texas Feb 13-15.

East Coast

The All-Stars would like to welcome three new additional members on the east coast! Rafael Fong (NJ - Lexus IS300), Richard Rivas (NJ - Civic Coupe) and Ted Chrzanowski (CT - Lexus GS300). All three members will be working with northeast coordinator Eddie Habeck from NY. The northeast will be a strong force in 2004! Check out their profiles online at www.teamallstars.com