

Folia Tec, Tokico, Coustic, Mazda, Faze, Street Performance, Moto Forge

Media Coverage:

Noel Rollon's Mazda RX-7 is featured in the May issue of Maxi Tuning magazine from France. His car will also be featured in an upcoming show on Spike TV hosted by Tyrese.

The whole west coast team is featured on the Street Fury DVD from Tokyo and is out now in stores.

Bike Division

The Bike division had six bikes on display at the AMA Superbike Race/Show in Sonoma CA.

-----
Do you have some news you want to share in the All-Star newsletter? Send info to Eddie Habeck at eddie@berk.com

News

The All-Stars have officially kicked in the door for the '04. A huge focus right now is the International Auto Salon May 21-23 in Atlantic City NJ. The northeast All-Star team will be seen for the first time, and joining them will be John Marsh and his crew from Atlanta.

Kevin Gettens has been working non-stop to help promote the entire team online. Kevin has taken on himself the tiresome task of uploading All-Star members profiles to just about every import car website he can find. Having a dominant internet presence will only help the team more going into such a big year.

Models

Amanda Habeck was the feature model of the month of April on www.Speedoptions.com and appeared in the Polk|MOMO booth at the Carlisle Custom Show in PA May 15-16.

Becka Messer was on the cover of the March issue of AutoMedia.

Shows:

International Auto Salon
New Jersey
May 21-23

West Coast

Noel Rollon's Mazda took first place 2 Door at the MagnaFlow Nationals. Ty and his Mazda also took first place 4 Door sport compact at this event.

East Coast

Rafael Fong and his IS300 took best Lexus and 4th place 4 Door at Import War in PA.

Gregg Chupp made it to the Southern Volks Fest with his paint still drying on his Jetta and won first place in the MKIVClass.

The Atlanta squad had a strong showing at the Drift ATL event with Jeff Geise and Justin Cohen all taking home awards.

Ron Nekula and his amazing jeep won 3 major awards at the Autorama show in St Louis