ICON Collective Pre-Grammy Industry Mixer

On Saturday January 31st the International Allstars found themselves at the Los Angeles Center Studios to bring some VIP's together for a Pre-Grammy's Industry Mixer event hosted by Creative Kingdom and Icon Collection. Together they teamed up to produce a great event that went spectacular and better than anyone had expected.

The event had many attractions including lifestyle entertainment like break-dancing by Killa-Fornia, beat-box Trio Mouthfunctions, rap group EGO, singer Michelle from Jammin Productions, an Allstar cast DJ's, Marketing Queens, Drift Drivers, and Race Queens. Photographers, videographers, food, drinks, and even some great giveaways were given as parting gifts. This event will be the talk of the town for months to come and were already planning the next big event which will be posted on our website and facebook page.

The International Allstars would like to thank all those that attended this mixer and welcome feedback on how you can get involved to make things bigger and better as we gear up for future television & film work. We have the best partners and consultants in the world and it truly makes us International and we are very proud of the name, the International Allstars.

Enjoy the photos and see how much fun it was the night before the Grammy's. For more information go to www.teamallstars.com
